If you are a current international student who is interested in pursuing an internship, then this employment workshop is for you! This workshop will cover various work authorizations available under current F-1 and J-1 regulations, along with alternative options for those with limited eligibility, which will allow students to pursue an internship opportunity during their program of study. This workshop will also offer detailed guidance on applying for Curricular Practical Training (CPT).